History - Bruschi's trade outgrew his first two stores. He erected a third store in late fifties. In 1857 he added a warehouse. After fire swept Coulterville in 1899, gutting Bruschi's three stores, he converted the warehouse into a store. Used for many years as a general store operated by the Bruschi family. It is now used as the firehouse. (See HABS CAL-1532)

Description - One story. Adobe construction with street front plastered and brick work design painted on plaster.
